About Our Hair & What makes us Different.

Our imported Indian Hair Is 100% Natural!

With Raw Hair Collections you can be certain that no additives, silicone coatings, or enhancers are ever applied to your hair. In fact, we carry only two colors of Indian Hair: Natural Brown and Natural Black. The reason for this is simple. Our 100% natural hair is imported from India; authentic Indian hair is either naturally black or naturally brown – not blonde, jet black, etc. We were determined not to carry other colors because we did not want any additives applied to the hair – no processing, no coloring.

 FACT ***

The most profitable salons and store chains retail the products they use.

Streamline your clients and offer everything they need there.

Stop giving your money away....refer to You!

Q&A?

What should I do when I receive my Raw Hair Collections Package?

Before Opening Hair Bundles: Thoroughly inspect each bundle to make sure the texture, length and pattern is correct before unraveling the hair bundle. We gladly accept hair exchanges only if it is unused and unopened with all packaging still intact.

How should I take care of my hair extensions?

Hair Care Instructions:

Washing Hair:

Raw Hair Collections virgin hair extensions should be treated as normal hair and washed regularly to maintain its natural shape. Shampoo, condition and moisturize your hair every 5-7 with low PH moisturizing shampoo and conditioner. Make sure to brush out all tangles before you wash your hair or go to sleep at night. Always tie hair up before sleep to avoid friction which causes tangles.

Some shampoos are harsh for hair extensions; we recommend that you (co-wash) pre-condition your extensions before washing by applying conditioner to hair without rinsing it out. Then shampoo hair normally and follow with conditioner.

Always treat after any color process as you would to your clients hair

Styling:

- Use a soft bristle brush starting from the bottom, gently work your way up. Do not tug or pull on the hair.
- At night, tie your hair up gently or wrap it to prevent tangling from friction
